takes pleasure in inviting you to a book talk with

Oona Strathern: The History of the Future from Delphi to Döbling

on Tuesday 6 May, 7pm

The brilliant, beautiful and sometimes terrifying ideas of visionary thinkers have played a key part in influencing our minds, politics and civilization to date. The History of the Future from Delphi to Döbling looks at the most interesting and influential figures among them and what their predictions have done for us. It also looks behind the scenes at how tomorrow's trends are being identified, 'made' and marketed today.

Author and trend consultant Oona Strathern was born in Dublin, grew up in London and currently lives in Vienna. She works as a writer for the Zukunftsinstitut in Vienna and as consultant for international firms.
